32.0 REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO EXAMINATIONS

- 32.1 Significance: All College examinations are important components of the training programme. They must therefore be taken with all the seriousness and respect they deserve
- 32.2 Examination card: All candidates will be issued with an examination card which must be produced and /or displayed as directed by the invigilators as the authority.
- 32.3 Presence and punctuality: Each candidate must be present in the examination punctually. The invigilator has the right to bar entry to any late candidate. No student who is 30 minutes late will be allowed in the examination room. When the examination starts a student must sit in the examination room for the whole time allocated to the paper.
- 32.4 Following instructions: It is important that each candidate follows the directions of the invigilator. There is no room for any discussion in an examination situation.
- 32.5 Extraneous materials:
- (i) Candidates must not carry into the examination room materials that are not allowed eg. books, papers, notes, phones, computers etc. Should anything extra be required, candidates will be informed in writing well in advance. It is the candidate's duty to notify the invigilator the presence of any extraneous materials in the room. The presence of any such material may be held against the candidate.
 - (ii) No mobile phones are allowed in the examination room. Any candidate who is found in possession of a mobile phone will have the phone confiscated and any other disciplinary measures taken against the candidate depending on what other evidence would accompany the carrying of the mobile phone.
- 32.6 Rubrics: The reading, understanding and following of the rubrics are all part and parcel of the examination except in cases of obvious misprinting.
- 32.7 No noise or movement is expected to the examination room once the examination has commenced. To draw the attention of the invigilator, it is necessary to raise one's hand Retrieving any misplaced paper or writing material even when accidentally dropped requires the invigilator's permission.
- 32.8 Absence: Information about any absence due to sickness requires the nurse on duty written report before the examination. Leave of absence on other genuine reasons must be notified in advance through the Dean of Students Otherwise a candidate are noted out to the defaulting candidate. A student who is absent from an examination will straight away score zero marks for records. A student who is proved of dishonesty in any examination will have the paper concerned nullified and a score of zero will be awarded. Further disciplinary action will be taken on the student.
- 32.9 Examination stationery: The necessary writing materials will be provided hence no other writing materials may be bought in by the candidate and none whatsoever may be taken out, whether used, unused, soiled or disfigured. All must be left in the examination room.. It follows that anyone in possession of the materials will be required to write to the chairman of the academic and examination board explaining the circumstances leading to the possession of the materials. The board will take any measures It deems appropriate.
